

---

— Brokerage event - Climate change & Earth Observation/GEO

- ISQ is Portuguese private, non-profit, technical and scientific association;
- Around 800 staff members;
- Turnover: 90 M€ (2012);
- Operating in 20 countries worldwide
- 21 accredited labs, including Chemical and Environment
- ISQ has considerable experience in participation and management of European R&D projects (more than 300 projects in the last 27 years)

Marco Estrela

maestrela@isq.pt

+351 214 229 005

<https://www.isq-group.com>

---

---

Interested in call

SC5-4 - Improving the air quality and reducing the carbon footprint of European cities (RIA)

ISQ expertise and capabilities

- Expertise in application of tools for the assessment, monitoring, modelling – pollutant dispersion and source apportionment – of air quality;
  - Development of technological options and strategies to fight against air pollution - pollutant emissions reduction, including feasibility studies, technical and economic viability studies on best available techniques;
  - Design and selection of technological options and strategies to improve air quality and reduce the carbon footprint of urban areas - Developed Sustainable Energy Action Plans (Covenant of Mayors) for Portuguese municipalities;
  - Evaluation studies of air pollution impacts on human health;
  - Fixed and mobile laboratories for air quality monitoring and assessment.
-